A Display That Gives an Impress ive Idea of the Radical and Exquisite Changes in the Styles for This Season

In the old days such a display would be termed an opening—so great, varied and true it is.

The latest arrivals (they came last Friday) make it complete and authentic to date. These we gathered in New York within the last week—they represent the latest blouse styles brought out from Paris.

We might have attempted many "pretty" words about the masses of chiffon, the cobwebby laces, the clinging softly draping crepes, but they would fall short of the distinctive qualities that make each waist a thing of beaut "per se."

As far as our knowledge goes largest furniture store in the South—which, applied to the invidual purchaser, means a freedom to choose from varied stock that could not be enjoyed in any other store.

This five-story store is filled with a stock of furniture and furnishings that were chosen by experts—by men who know through experience, training and constant study.

Every piece of furniture that is here is here because the experts have found it to be the best of its kind. This applies with equal meaning to those pieces and sets at medium and opprices and to those elegant, rich pieces and sets of finest wood and truest styles.

There is not an unworthy piece of furniture in the place, which means that when one buys furniture here one make an investment that is certain to ply dividends, in long years of Regular Postum requires fifteen to twenty minutes boiling to bring out rich flavour and food value.

Instant Postum requires no boiling, but is made instantly by stirring a teaspoonful of the soluble powder in a cup of hot water and adding cream and sugar to taste. Drink it instead of Coffee, "There's a Reason"

THE WAY HOME

A book for the man or the woman who loves honesty is this new novel by the author of "The Inner Shrine." For that is what the very human hero of this story is—honest in his hatred of pretense, honest in his wilterlands has gone astray. He believed he had "gained the whole world" only to find that he had "lost his own soul." Then from the depths, like Faust, he was guided and uplifted by a woman's love.
